Description

Whin Place offers two modern terraces of industrial and trade counter units, each with convenient pedestrian and vehicle access from the front elevation, ample parking and shared yard areas. The units are constructed with steel portal frames and feature pitched roofs with integrated roof lights, providing natural light throughout.

Location

East Kilbride is Scotland's most successful new town, located approximately 8 miles south of Glasgow city centre. The property is positioned on Whin Place within the established Nerston Industrial Estate, just 2.5 miles north of the town centre. The location benefits from immediate access to the A725 East Kilbride Expressway, providing a direct route to the M74 via the Raith Interchange. The Southern Orbital is also close by, offering convenient connectivity to the M77 towards the west.
