Location

Manchester city centre is more vibrant and engaging than ever before. Whether you're after fine dining, boutique shopping or a spot of culture, few destinations in the UK can compete.

And while Manchester has attracted every key leisure and retail chain, it's the independent businesses – from Home arts centre in Deansgate to the famed Rudy's Pizza in Ancoats – that give the city its unique flavour.

Located in the very heart of the Manchester, 11 Portland Street couldn't be better connected to the rest of the city – and beyond. With Piccadilly Gardens adjacent, bus and Metrolink tram stops are right on your doorstep, while Manchester Piccadilly is less than five minutes' walk away. Be wherever you need to be, quickly.

Description

11 Portland Street is one of Piccadilly's landmark office buildings. It has been comprehensively refurbished to include new glazing throughout, two new receptions with break out areas, landscaped communal courtyard, cycle storage and shower facilities, raised access floors and a new VRF air conditioning system.

The first floor suite is fully fitted including large boardroom, kitchen with break out area, power & data and 15 workstations.
