The property is perfect for family living with three principal bedrooms, all with generous ceiling heights, on the first floor. The second floor offers three secondary bedrooms which could be used as a further bedroom or study, subject to the relevant consents (see planning below). All the bedrooms are complimented by four bath/shower rooms and ample loft storage.

DESCRIPTION

Lot 1 - The Manor House

A handsome Grade II* Listed house with origins back to the mid-17th century with later additions.

The property enjoys a south facing plot of land with views to the garden. There are symmetrical wide frontages and a wall of full height French windows opening onto the garden. You enter a more formal part of the house with the drawing room, study and family sitting room. Here there is scope to open the kitchen up onto the study subject to the relevant consents (see planning below). Beyond, the full workings of a family home come to the fore with generous laundry cum boot room and impressive games/party room for all year round entertaining. From here there is access into the attached stone barn. Ample cellarage completes the must have list.

The property is perfect for family living with three principal bedrooms, all with generous ceiling heights, on the first floor. On the second floor there are three secondary bedrooms which could be used as a further bedroom or study, subject to the relevant consents (see planning below). All the bedrooms are complimented by four bath/shower rooms and ample loft storage.
The property is approached up a private drive to an ample parking and turning area to the side of the house and double car port and garage beyond. It is true to say that the back of the house facing the village lane belies the real essence of this important house, while the entrance elevation truly benefits from the space and privacy created by the delightfully and ample landscaped gardens. More importantly, from here one can fully appreciate the views over open countryside.

The gardens are an important aspect of The Manor House and have been a feature of the current owners. Walled, but with views over open countryside to the north and east, they make for the perfect setting, and escape for those seeking space and privacy. Recent additions include a heated outdoor swimming pool and hard (carpet, floodlit) tennis court. There is also a delightful west-facing flagstone terrace for entertaining.

There is a charming traditional Grade II Listed stone barn attached to the house providing workshop, garden store and loft over. This barn can be accessed from the games/party room and offers scope for the loft to be converted to a home office or secondary accommodation subject to the relevant consents (see planning below).

In all the house, gardens and grounds extends to about 0.96 acres. The photographs demonstrate the highlights which include fabulous architecture, excellent proportions, generous ceiling heights, considerable natural light flooding through sash windows and French windows, an amazing drawing room, scope to further improve the accommodation, beautiful gardens, views and land. It is rare to find such a magical gem particularly given easy reach of excellent local schooling and good communication links, particularly to London.

LOT 2 – SEPARATE PARCEL OF LAND WITHIN WOODEND (as shown shaded green on the lotting plan)

A short distance from the main house are two useful pasture fields with good access from the house and two field shelters. In all about 5.05 acres.
