Local Information

Deddington is a large village characterised by the delightful market place which hosts a farmers' market once a month. With origins believed to date to the 6th or 7th century AD, the village is rich in history, the earliest parts of St Peter and Paul's church dating to the early 13th century. Today there are several shops, a delicatessen, pubs, a post office, library, restaurants, a health centre with pharmacy, a hotel and a primary school. More extensive shopping and leisure facilities are available in the nearby towns of Banbury, Bicester and Oxford.

Excellent selection of educational establishments in the area include:- Deddington C of E Primary School and Warriner Senior School (Bloxham); Independent schools include St Johns Prep (Banbury), Bloxham School (co-ed) and Tudor Hall (girls) also in Bloxham. Bus services to many of the Oxford schools, including Oxford High School, Headington and Magdalen College.

Well located for both London and Birmingham and the North with junctions 10 and 11 of the M40 being about 7 and 8 miles away respectively; direct trains from Bicester North to London Marylebone, (from 55 minutes); Banbury to Birmingham (from 44 minutes); Birmingham International Airport is about 47 miles away and Heathrow about 63 miles.

Sporting and leisure activities include a squash and tennis club in Adderbury; Bannatyne's Health Club in Bodicote; Soho Farmhouse in Great Tew; golf in Adderbury and at Tadmarton Heath; horse racing at Warwick, Stratford and Towcester; motor racing at Silverstone; cinema in Banbury; theatre in Oxford and Stratford-upon-Avon.
