Introducing — The Exchange

Say hello to The Exchange, a set of stunning contemporary apartments in the heart of Solihull.

The site of a former telephone exchange, it has been entirely transformed to allow for a new kind of connection to be made.

With a premium finish and incredible attention to detail, you may never want to leave; though there's good reason to venture outside, too.

Welcome to the Midlands' most desirable living location.

Welcome home.

The area

The Exchange joins an ever-growing list of reasons to choose Solihull as the place to call home.

Ask
Slug & Lettuce

From sights to scenery and arts to business, Solihull truly has it all. Consistently voted as one of the best places to live in the UK, Solihull is home to over 1,500 acres of parkland. The town has excellent connections to nearby transport links and is easily accessible by rail and road whilst also enviably close to Birmingham Airport.

Solihull also has shopping in the bag. Home to Touchwood and John Lewis, nearby high streets in Shirley and Knowle have plenty to offer, too.

David Lloyd Clubs

The perfect place for professionals and families alike, Solihull also boasts excellent primary and secondary schools of outstanding repute, with exceptional public schools all within walking distance.

Satisfy your hunger in the town's excellent selection of restaurants, bars and eateries, or one of the highly regarded gastropubs within the surrounding villages just a short drive away.

You'll be ideally placed for quick access to nearby historic locations including Stratford-Upon-Avon, Warwick, Leamington Spa, Kenilworth and The Cotswolds.

Solihull train station is within walking distance, providing a fast service to London Marylebone and nearby Birmingham Snow Hill. With motorway access within a 10 minute drive, it truly is the perfect location.

A town, yet surrounded by picturesque countryside, Solihull is truly the best of both worlds, with shopping, food & drink, culture and entertainment all on your doorstep.
