

Huge potential on the edge of Dinas Powys

Westwinds, St Andrews Road, Dinas Powys

Freehold

Detached period home in Dinas Powys • In need of modernisation throughout • Set in about 2.5 acres of grounds • Enormous development potential subject to planning • Offered with no onward chain

Property

Westwinds is a substantial detached home set in circa 2.5 acres of gardens on the edge of Dinas Powys. There is enormous potential to create your dream home in this fantastic position.

With generous frontage including mature trees and hedgerows, two carport/garages and a roundabout, there is ample parking for numerous vehicles.

The house is in need of modernisation throughout, but is generous in dimensions. Originally two semi-detached homes, there is room for all the family.

Entered into a large reception hall with semi-circular garden room bringing in lots of natural light.

The kitchen is fully fitted with plenty of space for a breakfast table and opening onto the utility room with space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

The principal reception room is split in two halves with a two-sided fireplace and windows overlooking the garden.

A dining room, family room and wc complete the downstairs accommodation.

Upstairs there are six bedrooms, the master boasting a generous dressing room. All bedrooms have lovely views over the rear garden.

There are two bathrooms, one at each end of the house and two separate wc's.

Outside

Outside, there are about 2.5 acres of grounds, including mature formal gardens with walkways, water features. Towards the bottom of the garden are two stables and a paddock, ideal for those wanting equestrian facilities.

Overall, there is huge potential, subject to planning with large gardens and in a fantastic location.
