About this property

This modern townhouse offers balanced family entertaining space with an extended kitchen / dining room which successfully opens onto the westerly facing garden via bi fold doors. On the first floor the reception room spans the width of the house with French doors and Juliet balconies flooding the room with natural light. There is also a gas fireplace providing an elegant focal point to the room. Also on this floor is a bedroom overlooking the garden and a family bathroom. The second floor comprises a spacious master bedroom with en suite bathroom plus a further generous size bedroom. The house has off-street parking to the front and the benefit of an integrated garage.
