About this property

Enviably nestled within a terrace of exceptionally pretty Georgian houses, is this Grade II listed four bedroom home.

The quintessential East London house boasts a plethora of original features, with the wooden flooring, fireplaces and general quaintness complementing the sympathetic and characterful charm. The house is incredibly practical with cleverly designed bespoke joinery which can be found throughout, providing plenty of storage space.

The ground floor is well appointed, with two double bedrooms and family bathroom featuring a three piece suite.

Upon entering the lower-ground floor, you will be welcomed by a bright, open plan reception room with fully fitted kitchen at the rear. The bi-fold doors lead to the beautiful, quiet private garden.

On the first floor, one will find an endearing principal bedroom and fourth bedroom with plenty of storage space.

Further benefits include on-street residents parking.
