Gledhow Gardens, London, SW5

About this property

Gledhow Gardens is undoubtedly one of the areas most prestigious residential addresses. The northern terrace (Nos. 10 - 17) was developed by the highly regarded John Spicer in 1874 and shares similar architecture with addresses such as The Boltons and The Little Boltons. This particular apartment, that one enters on the 2nd floor is of one of only two detached buildings along the northern terrace with southerly views over the communal gardens, providing an incredible degree of grandeur and space throughout.

The accommodation is laterally spread across the third floor of the building with the entrance conveniently located on the second floor. The vast reception room spans across the entire width of the back of the building. In the center of the apartment there is a natural dining area comfortably large enough for an eight seated table. In addition to the impressive living space there is also a separate kitchen, two double bedrooms, a master en suite bathroom and an additional shower room. At the highest point the ceilings within this apartment extend to over 3.8 meters lending a unique almost penthouse-esque quality to the space

The building benefits from the use of a stunning communal garden square as well as being within the catchment area for Bousfield Primary School.
