Local Information

Set within short distance of the bustling, vibrant centre of Henley-on-Thames, close to good shops, theatre, restaurants, the cinema and the beautiful River Thames. The town offers many cultural and sporting activities, the rolling Chiltern Hills are on the doorstep and the commuter links by train or road are excellent to London, Reading, Oxford and the midlands. The M40 and M4 motorways are within easy reach as is Heathrow airport.

About this property

Situated on the first floor of a character building offering superb views over Henley, this spacious apartment has three bedrooms and a garden.

A communal front door leads to an entrance hallway with stairs to the first floor. A private front door leads to an internal hallway providing access to the principle rooms. There is a splendid reception room with a log burner and a feature bay window offering views over the gardens and Henley. There are two further double bedrooms with plenty of storage. The kitchen has a breakfast bar, gas hob and plenty of space. The bathroom offers a bath and overhead shower.

To the rear there is a sizeable private garden laid to lawn. There is use of a garage for storage and on parking space.
