About this property

The property has been redecorated throughout and offers a large reception room, separate integrated kitchen, two modern bathrooms and three double bedrooms. Set over the top two floors of this period conversion, the property boasts plenty of natural light, ample storage and high ceilings throughout.

Albion Road is just a short walk to the range of shops and cafes of Newington Green and Stoke Newington Church Street as well as the open spaces of Clissold Park and Highbury Fields. There are a range of transport links including many bus routes and Canonbury & Dalston Overground Stations are both just a short walk away.
