About this property

A well-proportioned two bedroom maisonette situated in a Georgian mid-terrace Grade II listed house. This beautiful property provides a stunning home in a sought after central location in the heart of the Barnsbury conservation area. The property has a large open plan reception room leading on to the modern eat-in kitchen on the first floor. Both rooms are bright and airy and benefit from high ceilings, sash windows with original window shutters and fireplace with original cast iron insert. On the second floor there are two double bedrooms and one ensuite bathroom. Both bedrooms have been furnished with bespoke built-in cupboards. On the second floor half landing there is a bathroom with a raised ceiling and fitted Velux windows.
