About this property

A charming semi-detached cottage with large rooms and high ceilings. The property feels bright and spacious throughout and has been beautifully maintained.

There is a large living room with lovely wood burner, separate dining room with doors leading to a tiled patio area, perfect for al-fresco dining, a sunny kitchen and cloakroom on the ground floor. The upstairs comprises three double bedrooms, one en suite and a house bathroom.

Outside there is a secluded cotil garden that is very private and well protected by mature trees. A tranquil place to enjoy the visiting squirrels and other wildlife.

The property also benefits from driveway parking for two cars.
