About this property

Found in the heart of South Kensington, this property offers stunning accommodation arranged over the ground and lower ground floors.

The reception space is double height with the mezzanine entrance hall that overlooks the room. The dining area leads to the fully fitted kitchen with utility room.

The master bedroom has an en suite bathroom and great built-in wardrobes. There are two additional bedrooms, one with a shower room within the bedroom and a further bathroom. There is plentiful storage throughout the property.

Local Information

Located at the centre of London, South Kensington is where some of the capital's most prestigious addresses are located. Living here offers a lifestyle that is hard to replicate in other central London locations.

The area's attractive housing stock includes desirable red-brick terraces, lateral apartments and quaint mews houses alongside many garden squares.

Good transport links to a number of key employment hubs, particularly the West End, and many high profile amenities add to the area's appeal.

South Kensington is home to the beautiful Kensington Palace Gardens, Hyde Park and a wonderful selection of museums including the Natural History, Science and Victoria and Albert Museums.
