About this property

A beautiful mews house, located in a pretty cobbled mews, just moments away from the green expanses of Hyde Park. The property is set across three floors and features well-proportioned rooms, including an open plan reception / kitchen area, three bedrooms, two bathrooms and two wonderful terraces, one with views over the cobbled mews and the other a light, airy but more private space to the rear at second floor level. Quite exceptionally, the property has windows on all four sides and so benefits from an abundance of natural light on all floors. At first floor level, beautiful sash windows light the kitchen area at the rear, while full width French doors at the front allow light to pour into the reception area. These French doors open out onto a charming balcony creating the perfect space for entertaining.
