SITUATION

The Aultmore lies in a beautiful rural setting around 1 mile southwest of the popular highland Perthshire town of Aberfeldy. The surrounding countryside has lovely views over the Tay Valley, with green fields interspersed with woodland and rugged, spectacular heather-clad hills. Aberfeldy offers the full range of local shops and services, including a medical centre and cottage hospital, banking, cinema, post office, veterinary and dental practices. There is local schooling in Aberfeldy at the well regarded Breadalbane Academy. Pitlochry, about 15 miles away, has a further selection of shops and is home to the famous Festival Theatre. Here is also a railway station on the main line from Inverness to London, served by the Caledonian Sleeper service.

The city of Perth is 30 miles away and offers all the amenities and professional services expected of a regional city. The A9 is the main route into the Highlands and has stretches of dual carriageway between Ballinluig and Perth, where it links with the M90 south to Edinburgh. Edinburgh International Airport is on the near side of the city. There are some renowned private schools within reach including Kilgraston, Strathallan, Craigclowan, Glendalmond, and Morrison's Academy and Ardvreck (both at Crieff) which both run daily bus services from Aberfeldy. The local area is a mecca for outdoor enthusiasts, with plenty of opportunities for cycling, walking and climbing. Highland Perthshire has many wonderful walks and mountains including a number of Munros, and Pitlochry is on the National Cycle Path. There is salmon and trout fishing on local rivers, water sports at a purpose built centre at Loch Tay and golf courses at Aberfeldy, Strathspey, Kenmore, Dunkeld and Pitlochry. For skiers, Glenshee, Aviemore and the Nevis Range are all easily accessible.
