Local Information

Halfway between Monaco and Nice, Saint Jean Cap Ferrat with its luxuriant and unique landscape, its perfect bays and views over the sparkling blue Mediterranean is doubtlessly the most sought after prestigious destination on the French Riviera. Cap Ferrat's residential property has been estimated at around five hundred villas spread over the peninsula planted with magnificent maritime pines and palm trees. High demand and the scarcity of land along with the charming village, its exclusive harbor, restaurants, shops, beaches as well as the Grand Hôtel Palace and its unique facilities, as the Spa and the Dolphin Club have contributed to this closed property market becoming one of the most coveted on the planet.
