A contemporary villa inspired by the architecture of Mies van der Rohe, and ideally located for the beaches of L'Escalet.

Benefitting from a pristine natural setting, the property is advantageously set on the cape of La Tourraque, which ensures the property features dramatic 360° sea and mountain views.

The property, which boasts stunning panoramic sea views, is arranged over 3 levels.

The ground floor includes an entrance hall, a reception room, a dining room, a fully fitted kitchen, four en suite bedrooms and a guest cloakroom.

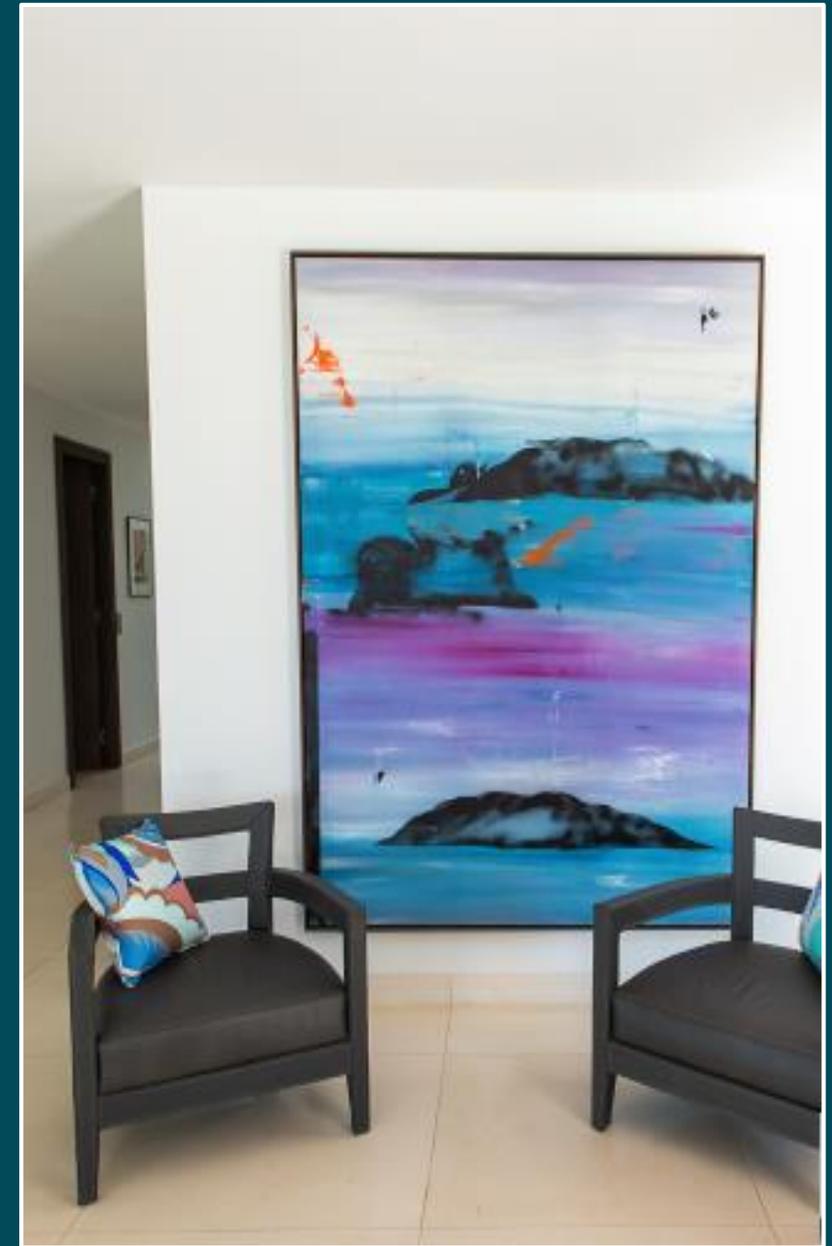

Two master bedroom suites with sea views are located on the first floor. The basement offers two additional en suite staff bedrooms.

The grounds feature a bar, outdoor kitchen and a petanque court.

Featuring a beautiful pool and terrace area the accommodation also includes a gym.

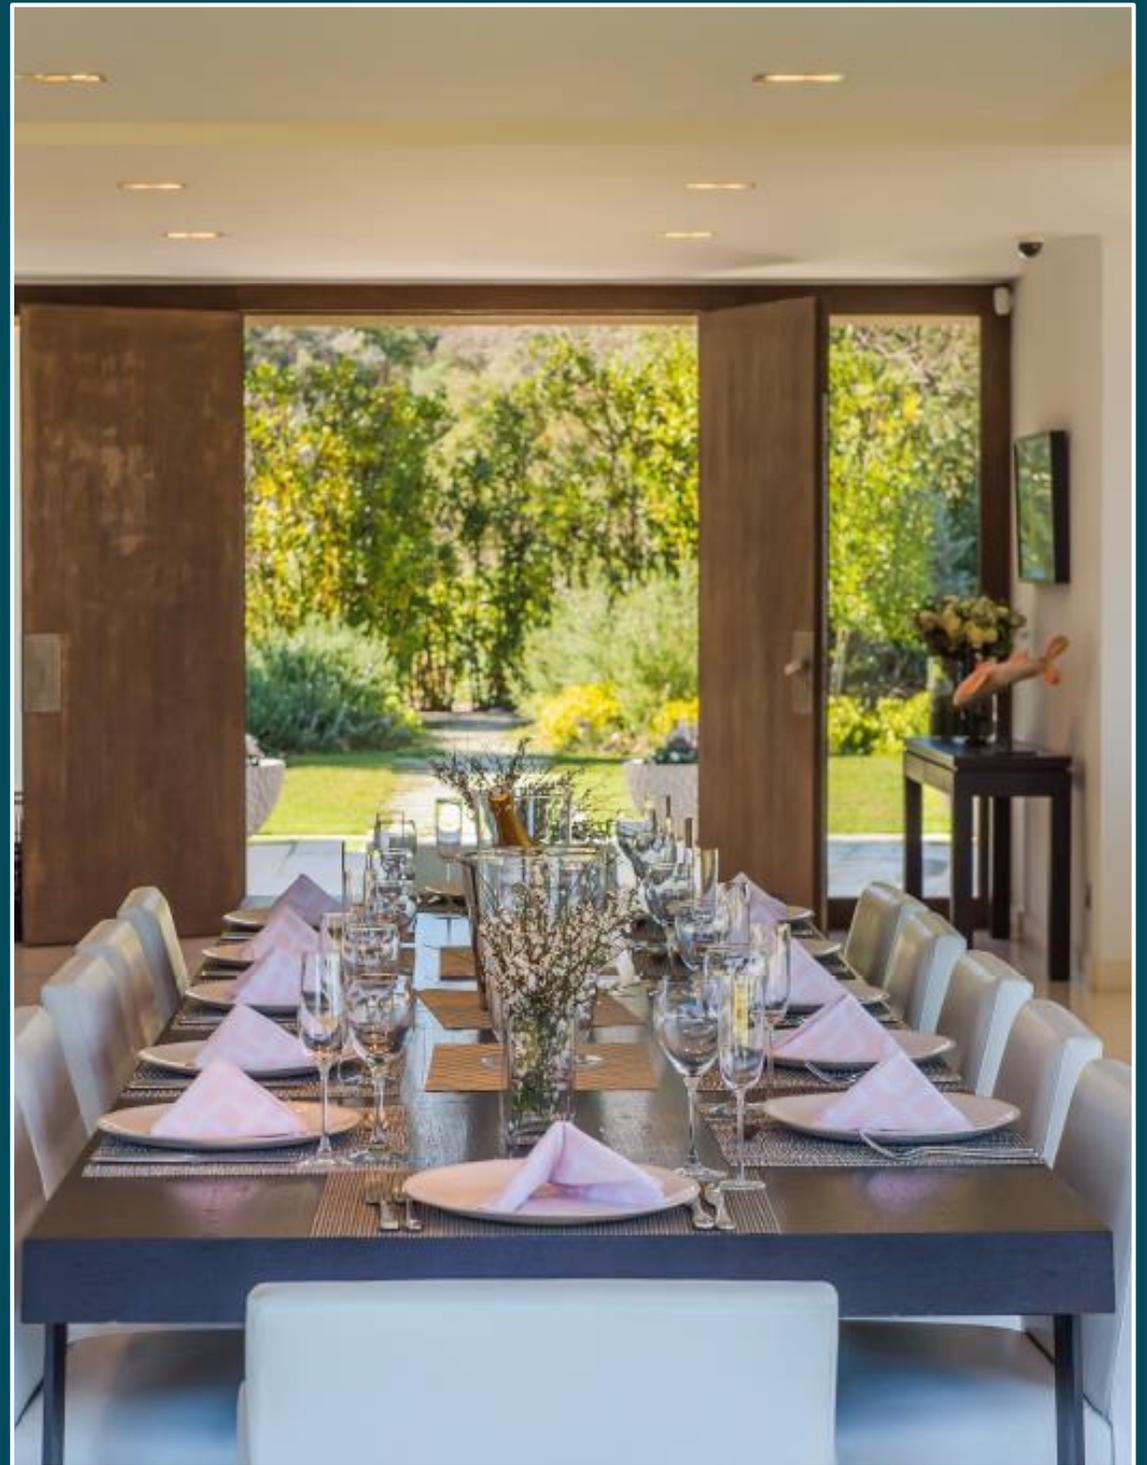

Set within landscaped grounds residents benefit from 6,000 sq m of gardens and woodlands which include direct access to the ever popular Escalet beach via a beautiful coastal path

Ideally situated for the amenities, restaurant and nightlife of Saint-Tropez village (an approximate 12 minute drive), guests are spoilt for choice in activities with vineyards, ancient towns and stunning walks on offer. The Gassin Country club, Polo club and Golf course a mere 15 minutes drive whilst two boats are at the guests disposal for private charter.

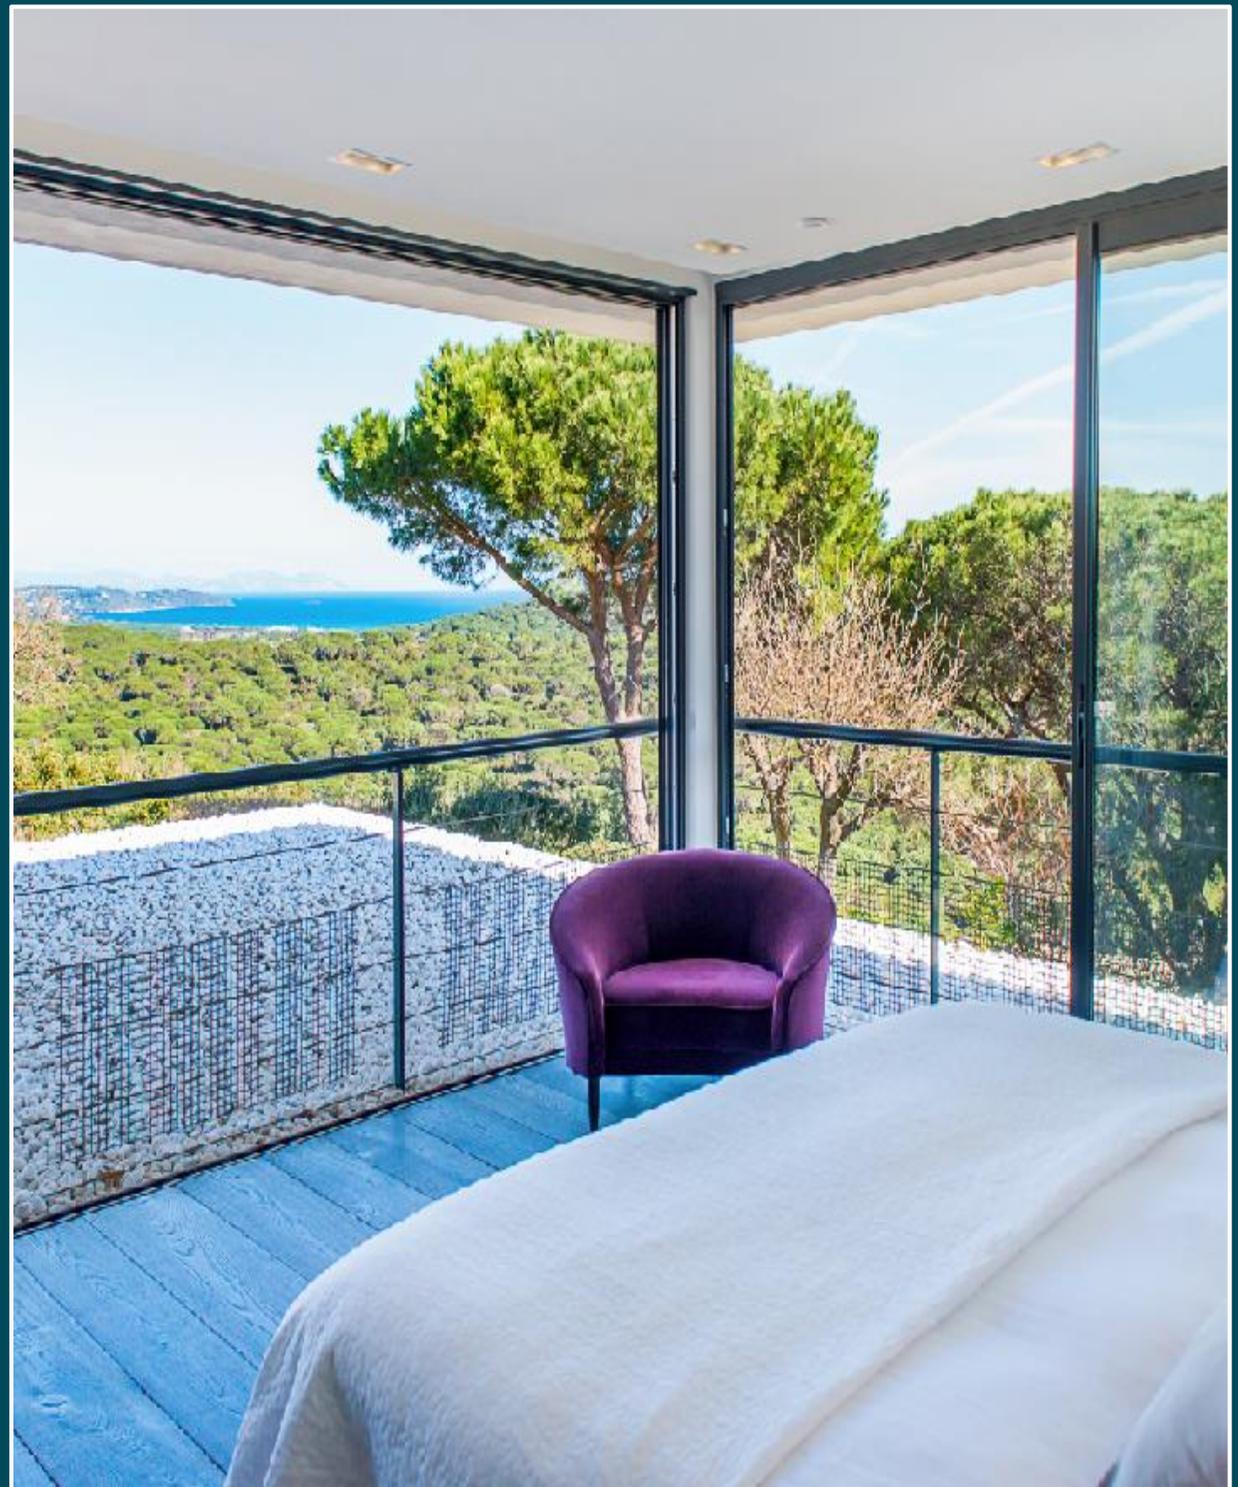

Helipad facilities are within an approximate 10 minute drive of the villa while the private airports of La Mole and Toulon also provide easy access. The vibrant towns of Nice, Cannes and Monaco can all be reached via Road at approximately 114, 89 and 137 km respectively.
