Situation

Chamonix was one of the first ski and hiking destinations in the world. Now, it is arguably one of the most renowned and prestigious ski areas and the breathtaking surroundings are enhanced by the presence of the magnificent and commanding Mont Blanc.

The resort is steeped in history, classic sophistication and architecture. One of the most unique features of Chamonix is its seamless transition from major ski resort for the winter season to the climbing and hiking mecca that it becomes throughout the rest of the year.

The summer season is busy and full of life with visitors enjoying al fresco dining and a full social calendar of events. Chamonix is considered to be a resort that has something for everyone.

The location offers a true Alpine haven of peace and nature.
