Situation

The resort of Kitzbuhel is famous for both its skiing and lifestyle and is located just 75 km from Salzburg and 120 km from Munich.

Kitzbuhel is internationally known as a playground for the rich and famous, partly because of its picturesque town centre and cobbled streets, and partly to the fabulous skiing area behind it. The ski area is world renowned and hosts the annual World Cup Alpine Hahnenkamm ski races.

Kitzbuhel is also a delightful summer destination, offering a wide range of outdoor activities such as water sports on surrounding lakes, a superb range of walks, mountain biking, horse riding, 4 championship 18 hole golf courses and a tennis centre.

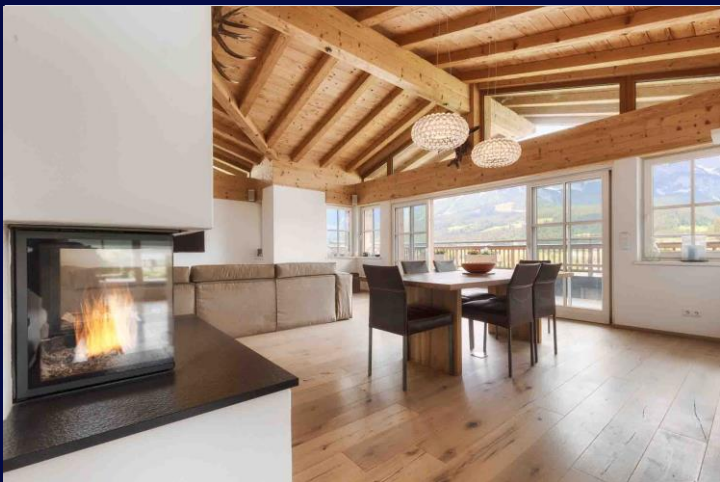

Description

Situated in an unobstructed position on the Wilde Kaiser front, in the immediate vicinity of the ski slopes, golf course and within walking distance to the restaurants, shops and cafes.

The large open plan living area offers breath taking views of the mountain range, as well as providing a perfect space for entertaining.

The tranquil village of Going offers beautiful views, as well as attracting hikers, bikers, climbers and skiers. Kitzbuhel is also within close proximity.
