The county of Kent is a one in a million location. A place truly unspoilt by progress Kent has it all in abundance. With its enticing mix of country, coast and city living, Kent is a rare blend of ancient and modern, natural and luxurious, individual and international.

But it's not all about idyllic landscapes. This is a point where history, commerce and culture meet. There are thriving market towns, illustrious chefs, history-rich villages, designer fashion and superb local vineyards. An indulgent, tasteful mix of the best of everything. If you want it all, then Victoria Point is the perfect place to be.

One of many benefits of living in Ashford is that there's plenty of glorious getaways nearby. Quaint seaside towns such as Hythe and Dymchurch are within easy reach. A good place to escape to is the mostly unspoilt Camber Sands. Part of a natural conservation area it's popular for wind and kite-surfing and is just a 20 mile car journey away from Ashford.

Also within reasonable reach are the majestic White Cliffs of Dover. An iconic, National Trust landmark they have so much to offer; stunning views, serene walks and a plethora of wildlife.

For country house luxury try Eastwell Manor or recharge at the London Beach Hotel, Spa and Country Club. Sample premium wines at world-class vineyards such as Biddenden and Chapel Down Winery.

With its close proximity to London and continental Europe, Ashford is Kent's international gateway. Well connected and enterprising. Accessible to London St Pancras by train and less than 2 hours from Brussels and Paris by Eurostar, it's Ashford's excellent transport links that make it such an attractive town in which to live.
