Local information

The property lies in the highly sought after Grandpont area, within walking distance of the nearby meadow, Hinksey Park, and its outdoor swimming pool. There is good access to the comprehensive amenities of Oxford city centre, colleges and schools, as well a wide range of sporting facilities. There are frequent rail services to London Paddington from Oxford mainline station, as well as regular coaches to London Victoria, Heathrow, Gatwick and Stansted airports from Gloucester Green.

Directions

From the southern bypass take the A4144 signposted Oxford city centre. Turn left after approximately one mile into Western Road, and left at the end into Marlborough Road.

About this property

A stylishly presented and cleverly extended period house with nicely proportioned, flexible accommodation arranged over three floors. The open plan feel of the sitting and dining room, leading through to the impressive kitchen/family room, makes it ideal for family living and entertaining. There are two bedrooms on the first floor, a bathroom with a bath and separate shower and, on the second floor, a further bedroom. The attractive south facing rear garden is paved with well stocked plant, flower and shrub beds, and a raised deck immediately outside the kitchen/family room is perfect for al fresco dining. There is also useful gated pedestrian access to the rear of the garden.
