Three Bedrooms • Two Bathrooms • Open Plan Kitchen/Dining Room • Rear Garden • Large Front Reception Room

Local Information

Twilley Street is a pretty tree lined street running off Garratt Lane. The road benefits from plenty of shops, restaurants and leisure facilities close by in both Earlsfield and the Southside shopping centre. Earlsfield's mainline train station with direct links to Waterloo is a short walk and there is easy access to the district line at Southfields underground station. There are many sought after schools in the area including Floreat and Allfarthing primary schools.

About this property

Set back from the road, is this charming three bedroom terraced house. As you enter the property, on the right hand side, is the bright and contemporary reception room. The reception room benefits from two large sash windows, allowing natural light to flow throughout. Leading on from the reception room to the rear of the property, is the sizeable open plan kitchen/dining room, benefitting from bi-folding doors leading out to the garden, a perfect space for outside entertaining and al fresco dining in the sunnier months.

The first floor is comprised of the family bathroom and two good size bedrooms. The rear bedroom benefits from built in storage space, with the foremost bedroom also benefitting from an abundance of natural light courtesy of the double sash windows. The second floor completes the property with the third double bedroom, featuring large sky light windows, as well as an ensuite bathroom. The third bedroom also has access to eaves storage on both sides of the room.
