Local information

Devereux Road is situated in a central and convenient position to the south west of Windsor town centre, which offers an excellent and expanding range of shopping and leisure facilities, as well as the historic Windsor Castle and Long Walk close by.

Rail connections to London (Waterloo) are available from the Windsor & Eton Riverside station and to London (Paddington), via Slough, from Windsor Central station. The M4 is available via junction 6, which in turn provides access to the M25, M3, M40, Heathrow Airport and central London.

There is excellent schooling locally, both independent and state, and a wealth of leisure activities for the family and the individual, including golf at Sunningdale and Wentworth, walking, horse riding and polo in Windsor Great Park, horse racing at Windsor and Ascot and boating on the River Thames.

There is also a popular leisure centre, numerous parks and Legoland a short drive away.
