Local information

Tudor Wood is situated in a delightful semi-rural location close to the many acres of National Trust land and Pinkneys Green. It is conveniently located for the comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities of nearby town of Maidenhead and the picturesque riverside towns of Marlow and Henley.

A direct main line rail service to London (Paddington) is available from Maidenhead whilst the Marlow By-Pass A404 (accessed at Maidenhead Thicket) provides access to the M40 and the M4 (J8/9), both of which link with the M25.

The region is well served for leisure and sporting facilities including the David Lloyd Centre and the Magnet Leisure Centre in Maidenhead; golf at Maidenhead, Temple, Marlow, Harleyford and Henley; tennis at Maidenhead, Bisham and Windsor; boating and sailing on the River Thames and at nearby Henley.

There is a wealth of local schools including Sir William Borlase Grammar, Burnham Grammar, St. Nicholas C of E primary school, Reading Boys' and Kendrick Girls', St. Piran's, Claires Court and The Abbey Girls' School, Reading.

About this property

Tudor Wood is set within beautifully maintained private gardens of just under an acre with heated swimming pool. The house offers spacious, character filled living space over two floors.

The generously proportioned reception rooms provide excellent entertaining space. Of particular note is the games room and the triple aspect sitting room with inglenook style fireplace and a spiral staircase providing secondary access to the first floor. The wonderful country style kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of units, integrated appliances, large island with breakfast seating and an oil-fired Aga. The kitchen is open plan to the family room which has doors opening on to the sun terrace.

On the first floor there is a pretty master bedroom suite with dressing/seating area and luxurious en suite bathroom. The spacious landing leads to four further beautifully presented bedrooms, two of which are en suite and a modern family shower room.

The property is entered via electrically operated gates with the gravelled driveway leading to the double garage and parking. The meticulously kept grounds at Tudor Wood are a particular feature. They provide a high level of privacy with various trees and shrubs. The sheltered sun terrace to the rear of the property can be accessed from the kitchen and is the perfect space for outdoor entertaining. The adjacent heated swimming pool completes this delightful garden.
