About this property

Greenleas is set on an attractive residential road. This house has been beautifully modernised, creating practical space and crisp clean lines combined with modern styling. The end result is a chic contemporary family home with a south facing garden is designed for enjoying both indoor/outdoor living.

The spacious reception hall is a welcoming entrance to this house. The kitchen/dining/sitting room has been cleverly designed to be the heart of this home. Two sets of doors open these rooms out to the garden terrace, creating an excellent entertaining space. The chic kitchen is equipped with a comprehensive range of sleek modern units, integrated appliances and large central island with breakfast bar seating. The spacious sitting room is ideal for family relaxation and the double aspect study offers a great homeworking room or additional guest bedroom if required. This floor is completed by a well-equipped utility room and cloakroom.

On the first floor the stylish main bedroom has garden facing views and a superb en suite with steam shower room. There are four further beautifully presented bedrooms and two modern family bathrooms.

To the front of the property is a resin driveway which offers parking for several cars. A low wall topped with stylish horizontal fencing creates an attractive entrance to the property. The resin finish continues along the wide side access to a terrace in the back garden, which currently has seating and a hot tub. The south facing rear garden has been designed to provide plenty of space for 'Al fresco' entertaining with a further paved sun terrace adjoining the house.
