Local information

Set above a remote valley on the fringe of the Peak District National Park, a more tranquil and yet not isolated setting is difficult to imagine.

The market town of Macclesfield is only a 20 minute drive away, less than 5 miles, with the main west coast train line placing London Euston from 1hr 48 mins and Manchester from 18 mins.

The area is perfect for those who enjoy the outdoor life, with superb walks and cycling in the immediate area, livery, all the Peak District National Park has to offer and even sailing at Rudyard Lake.

The local primary school at Wincle and Macclesfield State schools are good and Beech Hall School and Kings School Macclesfield in the private sector are within easy striking distance. Many of the principal Manchester schools have coach services from the area.

There are local country gastro pubs nearby including The Ship at Wincle, The Crag in Wildboardclough and there are rumours the Hanging Gate may be re-opening, which would be a walk just over the hill.

In a location like this, with one other property sharing the half mile long drive, one needs to appreciate the stunning views to the surrounding hills and have a hankering to 'get away from it all', yet be well placed for access to the north-west's commercial centres and a fast and regular service to London or Manchester.

About this property

This traditional stone built farmhouse offers superb family accommodation within the main farmhouse and has tremendous scope to enlarge this into the first floor of the adjoining barn which has staircase access, located above the farmhouse kitchen with its four oven AGA.

Nestled into the hillside above Wildboardclough all the principal rooms overlook the valley to the front with its pond and small copse.

The property has plenty of character and the outbuildings are extensive, over 2000 sq ft, with further potential, subject to necessary permissions, to create home offices, independent accommodation or extensive garaging. Plans are available from the selling agents.

The sale of this unique family home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a traditional farmhouse with plenty of further potential in a breath-taking rural setting, yet is not isolated and is perfect for dipping into the busy south Manchester area then retreating to unspoilt countryside.
