Norfolk's Cultural Verve

Norwich offers a lifestyle that both leads the way and sets the pace in Norfolk's cultural verve.

The city bustles with creativity, flourishing entrepreneurship and cutting-edge research as well as connectivity, the beautiful countryside and fabulous coastline beyond.

It's a historic city, with a distinctly modern attitude. From the Norman castle and famous cathedral to the Forum, built to mark the new millennium, the city is packed with eye-catching architecture that spans the centuries, creating an endlessly fascinating backdrop to modern living.

Founded on the River Wensum, Norwich was once an important trade route. Today, the river is once again breathing life into the city, and offering you a unique lifestyle.

Riverside living in an ever-evolving city.

Space to live

The impressive facades with their modern lines and symmetric cladding stand proudly amongst stunning landscaped gardens. The lower levels will provide premium facilities designed to initiate local businesses, creating a unique hub of activity.

The apartments at Canary Quay are beautiful and unique to this development, designed to offer light-flooded open plan living spaces. High quality Symphony kitchens combine functionality and crisp modern design in each new home. From the chrome ironmongery to the porcelain bathroom suites, every detail of these apartments is carefully considered and designed for the modern home owner, reflecting the elegance of the architect's vision.

One of Norwich's most talked about developments, Canary Quay is a mixed tenure scheme of residential and commercial spaces located on the banks of the River Wensum. The result of an in-depth design process and a detailed exploration of every aspect of building design, construction and performance. Designed by renowned architectural practice Ingleton Wood, the result is a series of striking buildings that are finished to the most exacting of specifications, set within a superb riverside living environment, delivering high living standards.

The development

Canary Quay provides an escape from the day-to-day routine, with communal recreation areas there is plenty of room to relax and enjoy the river views and fresh air in the peaceful gardens while you make space for the important things in life.

Broadland Housing

The flagship development of the Broadland Housing Group, Canary Quay is designed to create a unique community and enhance the growing Riverside community in the city of Norwich.

This modern development is the result of several years of planning and design, providing a total of 323 homes with a mixed tenure of open market, low cost home ownership and affordable rent 1 and 2 bedroom high quality apartments.

Working closely with the Broads Authority, Broadland Housing has set out to protect the natural habitats on the riverbank to ensure the future sustainability of the Canary Quay scheme in this beautiful location.

"We're very excited – this is the final piece in the jigsaw in the redevelopment of this area.

We're looking forward to delivering this full mixed tenure scheme that will not only provide much needed homes, but also enhance people's lives in our fine city of Norwich."

Andrew Savage
Executive Development Director

Riverside

Living next to the river has a charm, a tranquillity and escapism that enchants the soul itself. From taking relaxing riverside walks to watching the river activity from the landscaped gardens, peace and quiet can easily be found within this new riverside community.

For those with a more active desire, the river offers direct access to the stunning Southern Broads by boat or canoe. Enjoy the famous Norfolk skies and be surrounded in wildlife in just a few minutes up river. Venture into the city itself on the river and take in the historical sites of the city as you paddle through the winding waterway, stopping off at the many riverside public houses along the way.

City apartment living that offers healthy outdoor living to enjoy, Canary Quay delivers a closer-to-nature lifestyle that redefines riverside living.

City living

Live, work, play

Norwich is the only city in the UK located within a National Park, the Norfolk Broads, with over 125 miles of navigable lock-free waterways, stunning skies and open space.

The city, one of the country's most vibrant and cosmopolitan capitals, offers a lifestyle that both leads the way and sets the pace in Norfolk's cultural verve. The first city in the UK to be named a UNESCO City of Literature, Norwich is also home to an open-air market, quirky independent shops, restaurants, cinemas, galleries, theatres, cafes, bars, live music venues, pubs and clubs – which is why Norwich is ranked in the Top 10 shopping cities in the country.

With an incredibly diverse range of independent businesses and thriving food and drink scene, the city is also home to the headquarters of several national brands including Virgin, Aviva, Kettle Foods and Naked Wines, contributing to Norwich being voted the happiest place to work in the UK, 2016. With a growing international reputation for world-changing research, the joint venture at the Norwich Research Park between the UEA and the Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital includes scientists that are amongst the top 1% of the world's most highly cited.

Home to both the Norwich University of the Arts and the University of East Anglia, a Top 15 UK University and ranked Top 200 world-wide, and Norwich School, the region's top independent school, quality education in Norwich is in abundance.
